At the public sale of Mr. C. E. Butler's farm of 108 acres, yesterday, at Court House door, the farm was withdrawn after being bid to $102.75 per acre. Mr. Butler gave $90 per acre for this farm last spring, it is five miles from town on the Little Rock pike and one of the best farms in this county.

A New Firm.

Mr. J. S. Roberts, the popular salesman with Mr. W. Ed Tucker, and Mr. Meredith Anderson, of Georgetown, have formed a partnership and on or about February 1, will open up a shoe store in the old Talbott Clay stand on corner Fourth and Main. These gentlemen propose to handle nothing but the best grades of shoes and at the proper time will give to the public the names of the fine lines they will carry.

Elks' Memorial Service.

One of the largest audiences that has ever been in the beautiful and commodious new Christian Church, in this city, was present Sunday evening to attend the annual Elks' memorial service by Paris Lodge, No. 373. The exercises were conducted by Hon. E. M. Dickson, who represented the home lodge, in his usual graceful manner. The music for the occasion was simply grand. The singing of the well-trained chorus, under the directorship of Dr. Frank Fithian, fully sustained the reputation of this gentleman as a musical director of high standing. As we have often said, we will still say, that no city in Kentucky can in any way compare with the vocal talent that is in Paris.

The playing of the brass and reed quartette of the Elks' lodge was also of a high class of music, and under the directorship of Dr. W. C. Ussery, the Paris Elks' band will at no distant time rank with the noted band organizations of the country.

Mr. Dickson in a masterly speech, presented to the audience the Hon. J. Campbell Cantrill, of the Georgetown lodge, who was present to make the address of the evening. Mr. Cantrill took for his theme the four great principles of the Elks lodge—Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity. He handled his subject well and delivered one of the best addresses ever heard in our city. At times he grew eloquent in urging his brothers to live a life that would exemplify the above great principles of the lodge. His address was appropriate, earnest and eloquent. It made a good impression upon the large audience and the Paris lodge made no mistake in asking this distinguished young descendant of Bourbon to make the address.

HOLIDAY GOODS.—The largest stock of holiday goods in Paris can be found at my store—such nice presents as chairs, novelty pictures, lamps, tables, writing desks, rugs, carpets, etc. J. T. HINTON.

Katherine A. Goes Abroad.

Mr. J. Schoonmaker, of Dudding Hill Farm, Wilkesden Green, London, W., was in Paris Saturday and purchased of Mr. James E. Clay the fast mare, Katherine A., who has a 2-year-old record of 2:14 and a 4-year-old record of 2:11½. The price paid was a private one, but it is needless to say a fancy one. This is the same gentleman who purchased of Mr. J. S. Dodge, of this county, Oak Blossom, 4-year-old, for $5,000. Both of these Bourbon trotters were shipped by Adams Express Sunday morning for New York, where they join several other fast ones to sail in a few days for the old country. Mr. Schoonmaker stated that he believed that Katherine A. was the finest mare ever shipped from this country to England, and looks forward to great things from her next season in Austria and France.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court adjourned from Saturday at noon until this morning. Judge Carroll has made a most acceptable Judge to the lawyers and litigants alike. Last week he disposed of a number of cases, and if he only keeps up the way he has started it will not take him long to clean up the docket.

The following divorce cases have been submitted for judgment: Pearl Cram vs. C. D. Cram and Nellie Stoker Highland vs. Scotland Highland. The following have been granted absolute decrees: Mary Collins vs. John Collins; David Morris vs. Laura Morris; Susie Butler vs. John Henry Butler. Not a bad week for divorces in old Bourbon.

A Clever Company.

All parties wishing to order tickets by phone to the Lexington opera house will be permitted to do so over the Bourbon Home Telephone free of charge—one message to each person. This company gives excellent long distance service, and especially between Paris and Lexington. Manager Humbert is certainly a hustler and believes in giving patrons of the Home Phone the benefit of all the accommodations that it is possible to give. This company will shortly have a new directory issued and your name should appear in it if it is not already there.

THE VERY BEST.—We have the best brands of Seeded Raisins, Currents, Figs, Citron and Spices, and all kinds of fresh dried fruits and Winter vegetables. BAIRD & TAYLOR.

Dull Court Day.

Yesterday was the dulllest and by far the dampest court day held in Paris for a long, long time. Very few people in town and not enough stock to wad a shot gun.
